In the event that the Equipment breaks down or becomes unsafe to use, the Client shall immediately stop using the Equipment and take all steps necessary to prevent the Equipment from sustaining any further damage. The Client must also take all steps necessary to prevent injuries from occurring to any person or property as a result of the condition of the Equipment and must not repair or attempt to repair the Equipment without the Company's prior written consent. If the Equipment is lost or damaged and the loss of or damage to the Equipment is caused by the negligence or willful act or omission of the client or the breach of any of these Terms by the Client, the client shall without limitation be liable for:

- (a) any costs incurred by the Company in repairing or replacing the Equipment;
- (b) hire charges for the Equipment until the Equipment is repaired or replaced; and
- (c) any other costs whatsoever incurred or loss suffered by the Company as a result of the damage to or loss of the Equipment.

8. Release and Indemnity

The Client hereby releases the Company from, and agrees to indemnify the Company in respect of any third party claims, action, suits, demands, costs and expenses for damage or injury to person or property arising directly or indirectly out of the hire or use of the Equipment by the Client or the Client's breach of any of these terms.

9. Damage Waiver

Please note this is separate and distinct from insurance (refer clause 10). The Client agrees to pay a damage waiver to the Company to cover any costs associated with any accidental damage to a particular item of Equipment, provided that the replacement cost and/or the cost of repairs to any Equipment which was damaged does not exceed 10% of the hiring fee for the particular item of Equipment. If the damage exceeds 10% of the hiring fee for the particular item of Equipment, then clause 7 shall apply. The damage waiver does not apply to or cover any other damage to or loss of Equipment including, without limitation:

- (a) damage resulting from overloading, exceeding rated capacity, misuse, abuse or improper servicing of Equipment;
- (b) damage or loss due to the loss or disappearance of the Equipment;
- (c) damage caused by the use or operation of Equipment in contravention of any of these Terms; and
- (d) damage to, or loss of, the Equipment from any cause whatsoever.

10. Insurance

The Client will maintain at its own expense all appropriate policies of insurance:

- (a) for theft and damage to the Equipment hired in an amount not less than the full replacement cost of the Equipment; and
- (b) for liability, property and casualty insurance coverage in amounts necessary to fully protect the Company and its Equipment against all claims, loss or damage whatsoever and will produce written evidence of such insurance upon request.

11. Limitation of Liability

To the full extent permitted by law, all warranties, conditions and guarantees that may otherwise apply or be implied are excluded and the Company's only obligation resulting from a breach by it or of any condition, warranty or guarantee that cannot be excluded is limited to replacing the Equipment or supplying Equipment similar to the Equipment, repairing the Equipment, paying the cost of replacing the Equipment or paying the cost of repairing the Equipment.

12. Security Interest

- (a) These Terms create a security interest in favour of the Company in the Equipment pursuant to the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth).
- (b) The Client undertakes to immediately do such acts and provide such information as in the Company's opinion may be necessary or desirable to enable the Company to perfect any security Interest created or provided for by these Terms, as a perfected security Interest with first priority.
- (c) To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Client waives any rights it may have now or in the future to receive a copy of any verification statement or other confirmation related to the interests created or provided for, or perfected in the manner contemplated by, these Terms.

13. Force Majeure

If the Company is unable at any time to perform any of its obligations whether wholly or partly by reason of any cause beyond its control (including without limitation, acts of God, inclement weather, strikes, lockouts, fires, riots, civil commotion or unrest, interference by civil or military authorities or act of war) the Company may give written notice to that effect to the Client, giving particulars of such force majeure in which case the obligations of the Company under these Terms shall, to the extent that they are affected by the force majeure, be suspended during the term of the force majeure.

The Company shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the Client as a result of any delays caused by such force majeure events.

14. Credit Reporting

The Client authorises the Company to:

- (a) obtain from a credit reporting agency a credit report containing personal information about the Client and the Client's guarantors pursuant to section 18K(1)(b) of the Privacy Act 1988;
- (b) obtain a report from a credit reporting agency and other information in relation to the Client's commercial credit activities;
- (c) in accordance with section 18N(1)(b) of the Privacy Act 1988, give to and obtain from any credit provider that may be named in a credit report issued by a credit reporting agency information about the Client's credit arrangements, which may include information about credit worthiness, credit standing, credit history or credit capacity; and
- (d) use any credit information for the purposes of this contract (section 18L(4) of the Privacy Act 1988) and assisting the Client to avoid defaulting on its payment obligations, notifying credit providers of a default, and assessing credit worthiness.

15. Jurisdiction

These terms and conditions are governed by the Laws of Victoria and the Client and the Company submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of that State.

16. Charge/Interest

The Client will pay on demand interest at the Overdraft Rate on any monies payable hereunder which may from time to time be due and payable but unpaid for thirty (30) days, calculated on a daily basis and compounded monthly commencing the date the monies first became due to and including the date the monies are paid in full.

The Client charges in favour of the Company all its estate and interest in any land, and in any other assets whether tangible or intangible in which the Client now has any legal or beneficial interest or in which the Client may later acquire any such Interest with payment of all monies owed by the Clients and agree upon request in writing, to execute a registrable instrument transferring to the Company, the Clients estate and interest by way of security. The Client hereby grants an equitable charge over its real estate and hereby authorises the Company to lodge a caveat in respect thereof.

17. Miscellaneous

If any of the Terms becomes void or unenforceable for any reason then that part will be severed from these Terms to the intent that all other parts that do not become void or unenforceable will remain in full force and effect and be unaffected by any severance of other parts. Failure by the Company to insist upon strict performance of any of these Terms, or to exercise in whole or in part any right that it may have under these Terms or at law, shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any rights that the Company may have and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach by the Client of any of these Terms.
